- Management of stud farms and other horse production units.
- License to teach equitation at all levels

I do have trainer diploma level 2 of 4 in the portuguese system, however i didnt convert it into FEI passport diploma and due to burocratic portuguese problems im with trouble to get it

I sucessfully competed until 1.20 in ofical events and have some experience in higher courses however in un ofical events

I spent the past two years working in germany as a professional horse rider first for one year for paul schockemohle from who i can proudly present a recomendation letter and later in rossbornerhof.

I can compete up 2-3 stars international events in show jumping thru the portuguese federation.

Previous experience in the field of...: Riding horses

Previous equestrian experience: I can literally ride any kind of horses. As said before my last two years was working as a professional horse rider in germany from where i also collected a lot of experience.

When working for paul schockemohle i was riding all kind of horses, mares, stallions and geldings and all of them were young horses. For half a year i was breaking horses only and later i was teaching the young horses how to jump to later prepare them for competition. My last job was ore focused in the competition - make horses ready to compete and compete with them.

I did successfully completed a bunch more of clinics and internships with several famous riders.
